Musical performances

We are fortunate to be hosting a number of performances this term, which we are presenting free of cost to our students:

- This Friday 9 March, Melville SHS Swing Band will perform for us.
- On Friday 23 March we host Opera WA. (Parents welcome).
- On Thursday 12 April the WA Police Pipe Band will visit.

We have a very strong music program at Richmond. All students from year 1-year 6 study class music for an hour each week and 60 selected students from year 3-6 learn instruments with specialist teachers from the School of Instrumental Music. We currently have access to lessons in flute, violin, viola, cello, trumpet, trombone, clarinet and students can play in a string ensemble.

School Council

Welcome Big Breakfast 7.30am

The P&C is hosting a big breakfast for all families in the quad on Friday 6 April. More information to come, but just for your diary.

The menu: Sesame seed and whole spelt crackers, Roast Carrot and fennel hummus, Creamy coconut chia pudding with star anise roasted plums

This week room 9 is sprouting seeds for us to use in the rainbow salad we are making.
